

Hindon CEVA Primary School

Equality Statement

At Hindon Primary School, within our Christian ethos, it is our intent that the school will promote equality in order to eliminate unlawful discrimination and harassment; support equal opportunity; and embrace good relations and positive attitudes between people of diverse backgrounds.

The principles of this statement applies to all members of the school community – pupils, staff, governors and parents. Hindon School will not tolerate less favourable treatment of anyone on the grounds of gender, race, disability, sexual orientation, age, and religion or belief. We seek to ensure that no member of the school community, or any person through their contact with the school, receives less favourable treatment on any grounds which cannot be shown to be justified. This covers race, colour, nationality, ethnic or national origin, religion or belief, gender, marital status, responsibility for children or other dependents, disability, sexual orientation, gender reassignment, age, trade union or political activities, socioeconomic background, where the person lives, or, spent convictions.

Equality is about treating all people with dignity and respect, and recognising the value of each individual. This means an ongoing commitment to ensuring that as a school, we meet the varied and individual needs of our community.

We will make sure that our employment practices are fair and promote equality. Through our broad and balanced curriculum, we will actively value the wide variety of lifestyles and cultures, locally and nationally and globally. We will prepare children and young people for living as global citizens within a diverse society and will teach our children to understand that we are all unique.

We will ensure that the principles of this statement are reflected in all our policies, practices, procedures and that our children leave Hindon Primary school with a desire to live in a world that respects and embraces equality and diversity.
